Academic Integrity Code

The University of Alabama at Birmingham expects all members of its academic community to function according to the highest ethical and professional standards. Students, faculty, and the administration of the institution must be involved to ensure this quality of academic conduct. Please review UAB's Academic Integrity Code located at

<https://www.uab.edu/one-stop/policies/academic-integrity-code>

Violations of this honor code will result in a variety of sanctions as provided in the Code. A minor offense may result in a reduced grade for the associated assignment or homework. A major offense may, at a minimum, result in the failure of the course. Repeat offenders may be expelled from UAB.

It is important to note that

- 1) "All students are expected to be familiar with the Academic Integrity Code and abide by it. By their continued enrollment at the University, students reaffirm their pledge to adhere to the provisions of the Academic Integrity Code."
- 2) Unauthorized assistance from third parties including a commercial service such as chegg.com or engaging another person (whether paid or unpaid) constitutes an act of cheating and is interpreted as a major offense in the Academic Integrity Code, resulting in F in the course (see chart below). Further, students are prohibited from posting homework, assignments or examination questions to non-UAB web sites without explicit authorization by the instructor.
- 3) UAB requires both faculty and students uphold the standards for academic integrity. Students who witness academic misconduct have a duty to report it.
